REAL ESTATE SPECIALS

In order to make a quick sale I am in position to offer for sale at a very low figure and on favorable terms, that desirable residence property on La Selle avenue, near the Presbyterian Church. The dwelling is comparatively new and in excellent condition, inside and out; it is well arranged as well as attractive. The lot is high, well drained and is a nice lawn. The location is especially good, being directly on one car line and within 100 yards of the other, having many advantages over many other properties. You should see us about this property at once.

OVERLOOKING HAMPTON ROADS

Another opportunity for you. In order to make a quick sale I am in position to sell a desirable dwelling property on the car line, having a fine view of the Hampton Roads Harbor. This is a corner property, three lots front and having a frontage of 150 feet, the lot's worth $1,500 and the dwelling cost $1,900—to build, $3,400—worth of property—and I am offering it to a quick purchaser for $2,500.

R. L. CARTER
UNDER ARREST

Newport News Man Charged
With Stealing Horse From
Mr. C. D. Mallory.

WAS LOCATED AT YORKTOWN

Deputy Sheriff C. G. Curtis, Officer John Tignor and Magistrate J. Albert Dean Started for Yorktown Last Night to Bring the Prisoner Back to Hampton for Trial.

R. L. Carter, who is said to live in Lakeville, the east end suburb of Newport News, was arrested at Yorktown yesterday and is being held there for the authorities of Elizabeth City county, who want him on a charge of horse stealing.

Go for the Man.

Deputy Sheriff Charles C. Curtis, accompanied by Officer John Tignor and Magistrate J. Albert Dean, started last night for Yorktown and will today bring Carter back to Hampton for trial.

Carter is charged with stealing a valuable horse from the stable of Mr. C. D. Mallory, who resides in Salters' Creek. According to the best information obtainable, Carter is alleged to have entered Mr. Mallory's stable sometime during Friday night or early yesterday morning and stolen the animal, which is said to be a good horse.

Took Horse from Stable.

When Mr. Mallory missed the horse yesterday morning he reported the fact to the authorities. Messages were sent to York county and other points asking that the authorities watch out for the alleged thief and a full description of the horse was given.

During the afternoon Deputy Sheriff Charles C. Curtis received a message from Yorktown stating that a man giving his name as R. L. Carter had been arrested while attempting to sell the equine and asking that an officer be sent there for him.

It was impossible last night to find out anything concerning Carter.

Officers Curtis and Tignor will probably reach Hampton this afternoon with the prisoners.

Warrant Sworn Out.

A warrant charging Carter with the larceny of the horse was sworn out by Mr. Mallory before Justice Dean.

It is likely that Carter will be given a preliminary hearing before the magistrate sometime tomorrow.

Several attempts to find out who Carter is from people in East End Newport News last night proved futile.

It was said by a gentleman who thought that he knew Carter that the man is a little weak-minded, although he was not certain that the man under arrest is the same one he had in mind.

HAMPTON CHURCHES AND SERMON TOPICS

Rev. R. H. Potts Will Speak on an Unique Subject—Announcements of Other Preachers.
